I would like to register for the 'GARDENS: A LIVING ARCHIVE' conference and enclose Stg£/IR£

(Cheques payable to NORTHERN IRELAND HERITAGE GARDENS COMMITTEE)

Name .....

Address .....

.....

.....

Tel No .....

Please tick:

☐ I would like vegetarian food

☐ I would like a local accommodation list

The Curvilinear range of glasshouse as completed in 1849 for Queen Victoria's visit.

NORTHERN IRELAND HERITAGE
GARDENS COMMITTEE

CONFERENCE

at

The National Botanic Gardens,
Glasnevein, Dublin

GARDENS
A LIVING ARCHIVE

19, 20, 21 OCTOBER
2001

Friday 19th October

7.30pm Registration
(National Botanic Gardens)
Reception
Refreshment

Charles Nelson:
Shadows from Burma: the archives of an Irish botanical collector and artist, Lady Charlotte Wheeler-Cuffe

Saturday 20th October

9.00am Welcome by Chairman (NIHGC)
David Gilliland

9.15am Martin Gardner:
Can cultivated plants in Ireland help to save threatened species in the wild?

10.15am Anne Gilliland-Swetland:
The role of archivists

11.30am Mary Forrest:
Plant cataloguing for archivists

12.30pm Bridget Treacy
Marlay Park Walled Garden

2.30pm Site Visit
Marlay Park
(conducted by Denis Shannon)

7.30pm Dinner
Venue: National Botanic Gardens
Speaker: Michael Lear
Cultivating Archives

Sunday 21st October

9.45am Anne James:
History of Lord Talbot de Malahide's collection: the use of archives in the restoration and maintenance of Talbot Botanic Gardens

11.00am David Davison:
Photographic records of Irish plants and gardens

11.45am Mathew Jebb and Sarah Ball:
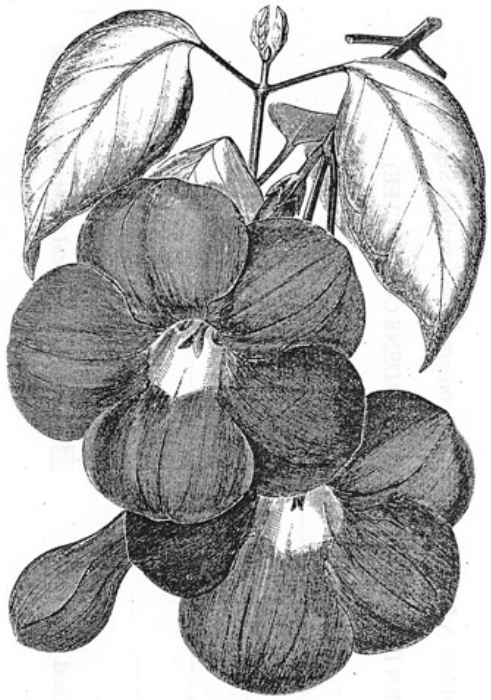
Glasnevin's archives in the herbarium and library

General Discussion

2.00am Site Visit
National Botanic Gardens,
herbarium and library



—BIGNONIA MAGNIFICA.

The conference will cost £100 sterling (IR £120) including coffees, teas, lunches & dinner

Send booking to:
BELINDA JUPP (Hon Sec.)
NIGHC
PO Box 252
BELFAST BT9 6GY
Tel: (02890) 668817; 668817 (UK)
Fax: (02890) 666506; 666506 (UK)
Email: belindajupp@lineone.net

Please note we regret we have no credit card facilities. No refunds will be given for cancellation within 3 days of the conference. Stg£8 (IR£10) administrative fee will be retained on other cancellations

Northern Ireland Heritage Gardens Committee

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

19th, 20th, 21st October 2001

The National Botanic Gardens Glasnevin, Dublin

(by courtesy of the Director, Donal Synnott)

GARDENS : A LIVING ARCHIVE

Friday19th October

6.30pm Registration and Reception

Dr Charles Nelson - 'Shadows from Burma: the archives of an Irish botanical collector and artist, Lady Charlotte Wheeler-Cuffe'

Saturday 20th October

9.00am Welcome by the NIHGC Chairman, David Gilliland

9.15am Martin Gardner, Royal Botanic Gardens, Edinburgh – 'Can cultivated plants in Ireland help to save threatened species in the wild?'

10.15am Dr Anne Gilliland-Swetland, UCLA, 'The role of archivists'

10.45am refreshments

11.00am Dr Mary Forrest, UCD, 'Plant records as archives'

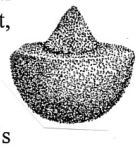
12.00 noon Bridget Treacy, DúnLaoghaire-Rathdown County Council, 'Restoration at Marlay Park'

12.50pm Belinda Jupp, Historic Garden Consultant, 'Historic Planting in the Flower Garden at Marlay Park Walled Garden'

1.00pm lunch

2.15pm depart by coach for visit to Marlay Park : visit at 3.00pm lead by Denis Shannon, DúnLaoghaire-Rathdown County Council

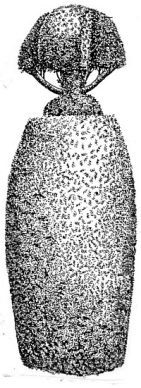
7.30pm assemble for dinner at the National Botanic Gardens : Michael Lear, National Arboretum, Castlewellan and Beverley Lear, Anthropologist & Landscape Consultant, 'Cultivating Archives'



Sunday 21st October

9.30am Anne James - Fingal County Council, 'History of Lord Talbot de Malahide's collection: the use of archives in the restoration and maintenance of the Talbot Botanic Gardens'

10.30am refreshments

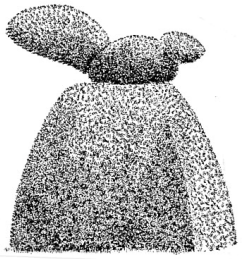


11.00am David Davison, photographer, 'Photographic records of Irish plants and gardens'

12.00 noon Dr Mathew Jebb and Sarah Ball, National Botanic Gardens, will introduce and conduct a tour of the herbarium & library

12.45pm Discussion

1.00pm lunch

2.00pm Tour of the National Botanic Gardens, herbarium and library


Final refreshments